

KLRI Journal of Law and Legislation

Volume 12 Number 2

Volume 12 Number 2 CALL FOR PAPERS

The Korea Legislation Research Institute Journal of Law and Legislation (KJLL), a KCI (Korea Citation Index) journal, is published by the Korea Legislation Research Institute (KLRI), a government-funded national policy institute in Korea. The KJLL aims to provide a forum of vibrant academic discussion and timely comparative analysis on Korean and Asian laws. The KJLL is published biannually and distributed to a wide readership in order to support legal scholarship and practice around the world. The KJLL (Vol.12 No.2) is currently accepting manuscripts from legal scholars, researchers, practitioners, and government officials.

Theme

- ☒ (Featured Topic) Regulations on Big Tech Companies
- ☒ (General) ARTICLES, BOOK REVIEWS, NOTES on any topics on law and legislation of Korea/Asia or of other parts of the world relevant to or in comparison with Korea/Asia

Submission Form Due May 31, 2022 (Tue.)

First Draft Due June 30, 2022 (Thur.)

Publication Date November 30, 2022 (Wed.)

For Further Guideline

- ☒ Please see attached General Guideline.
- ☒ For more information on KLRI and its publications, please visit http://klri.re.kr/eng/sub03_03.do

※ Authors whose papers are published for publication will be paid a fixed sum of honorarium in accordance with the Journal's internal regulation.

For Inquiries Please contact the Managing Editor at kjll@klri.re.kr

